The Society of Thoracic Radiology invites you to partner with us, as we host the 36th Annual Meeting on March 4-7, 2018 at the new Fairmont Austin, in Austin, Texas. The program committee, headed by President-Elect Cristopher Meyer, MD, in collaboration with Educational Committee Chair, Jeffrey Kanne, MD has designed an outstanding, comprehensive postgraduate radiology course in cardiothoracic imaging. This comprehensive 4-day continuing medical education program offers industry sponsors an opportunity to reach clinicians with the latest thoracic radiology techniques and products. The focused meeting environment is ideal for businesses dedicated to delivering products and services that support these conditions. This forum will allow you to interact with clinicians eager to learn about new technologies and innovations that aim to improve patient care.

The course curriculum covers a variety of cardiothoracic imaging topics including lung cancer screening, diffuse lung diseases, quantitative imaging, big data and deep learning, pulmonary infections, oncologic imaging and interventional management, evidence-based imaging and educational topics, cardiothoracic emergencies, and cardiovascular imaging. Self-assessment modules (SAMs) will provide important opportunities for maintenance of certification and life-long learning needs.

Highlights of the 2018 meeting include:

- The Benjamin Felson Memorial Lecture, “IgG4 Related Disease,” will be given by Jay Ryu, MD, Professor of Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine, Mayo Clinic Rochester.
- The Gordon Gamsu Lecture, “Radiation Induced Lung Injury: Detecting Recurrence and Texture Analysis,” will be given by David Palma, MD, MSc, PhD, FRCP, Assistant Professor, Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry, University of Western Ontario.
- The Scanlon Lecture, “Emerging and Recurring Occupational Lung Disease in the 21st Century,” will be given by James Lockey, MD, Professor of Occupational, Environmental and Pulmonary Medicine, University of Cincinnati.
- There will be a session hosted by Geoffrey Rubin, MD, entitled, “Cardiothoracic Conundrums: Cases that Amaze and Inform.” The cases will be solicited from the STR members and highlight diagnostic dilemmas or management challenges. The session will focus on learning from our collective mistakes by sharing them in a relaxed and entertaining format.
- Terrance Healy, MD, and the Awards Committee will identify several of the best posters that will be displayed at the meeting, and the authors of those posters will present their topics in 10-minute talks on Wednesday morning.

Thank you for considering our invitation to join us at the 36th Annual Meeting. For more information regarding the course, please access www.thoracicrad.org or contact Donna Kelly at 847-752-6249 or donna@veritasmeetingsolutions.com.

We look forward to partnering with you in Austin!

ACCREDITATION INFORMATION
The Society of Thoracic Radiology is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians.

The Society of Thoracic Radiology (STR) designates this live activity for a maximum of 30.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

TARGET AUDIENCE
This course is designed for cardiothoracic radiologists, diagnostic radiologists, pulmonary medicine specialists, cardiothoracic surgeons, and fellows and residents with an interest in cardiothoracic imaging. Because of the prevalence of diseases of the chest in the general population, the course will also be of value to internists and family physicians.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
1. List basic concepts in imaging interpretation including pitfalls, anatomic variants, and frequently missed diagnoses.
2. Summarize the role of imaging in the assessment of cardiac disease, including diseases of the coronary arteries and great vessels of the thorax.
3. Define the role of imaging in the screening, diagnosis, evaluation, and management of patients with lung nodules.
4. Explain the clinical and radiological evaluation and management strategies of a solitary pulmonary nodule, including the subsolid lesion.
5. Illustrate current and emerging applications in radiography, computed tomography (CT), magnetic resonance (MR) imaging, and positron emission tomography (PET) as they relate to the evaluation and management of thoracic diseases.
6. Summarize a practical and multidisciplinary approach to the assessment and management of diffuse lung diseases.
7. Define current issues in infectious diseases of the chest.
8. Discuss the current status of interventional procedures of the chest and spectrum of post-treatment changes in the thorax.
9. Apply basic strategies for the interpretation and management of mediastinal abnormalities.
Partnership offers you the opportunity to network with over 400 healthcare providers.
